The APAT suspended the impugned show cause notice pending disposal OA No.3467/2002 and during the pending of OA, he retired from service on 28.2.2005. the APAT finally dismissed the OA with direction to the applicant to submit his explanation to the show cause notice with in a period of 3 weeks and the respondents shall consider and pass appropriate orders thereon.

3. The Government after examining his explanation decided to tentatively impose 10% cut in pension for a period of two years against Sri C.Srinivas Reddy, Asst. Planning Officer(Retd), HUDA for the charge held proved and accordingly issued Show Cause Notice as to why the above punishment shall not be imposed.

He has submitted that when he has no knowledge about purchase of shares by his wife, the question of intimation to the department does not arise, and further no record is discovered enquiry that this wife purchased shares worth Rs.68,000/- and even then the Enquiry Officer held the charge as proved.
